PRESS RELEASE NO. 2010-084

HEALTHY MOTHERS, HEALTHY BABIES FAIR

The Department of Public Health and Social Services is pleased to announce that there will be a “Healthy Mothers Healthy Babies” Fair at the Micronesia Mall on Saturday October 30, 2010 from 10:00 am until 2:00 pm. The theme for the fair is “Embracing Our Families with Good Health” or “Ta Sostieni I Familia gi Minaolek na Salut.”

There will be many informational booths set up by various community organizations and government agencies such as the Department of Public Health and Social Services Programs, Project Karinu, Guam Parent Information Resource Center, CEDDERS, I Famagu'onta (Our Children), Guam Early Intervention, Office of the Attorney General, Diabetes Association, Erica's House, Guam's Positive Parent's Together, Guam Legal Services, UOG Guam Early Hearing Detection and Intervention, Department of Mental Health & Substance Abuse/Healing Hearts Crisis Center, US Naval Hospital Mother Baby Unit, Autism Community Center, Sanctuary, Guam Developmental Disabilities Council, Guam Early Learning Council, Guam Early Hearing Detection and Intervention, DMHSA Suicide Prevention, GUAHAN Project, and many more. These organizations and government agencies will be on hand to answer questions and provide resourceful information to young mothers, adolescents and parents.

Find out about baby health, postpartum and parenting concerns, benefits of breastfeeding, adjusting to parenthood, Head Start child activities, nutrition, child dental health, smoking cessation, exercise to keep fit, and many other informational health topics.

There will be free raffle drawings for fabulous prizes, magic show, exercise instructors and hula dancers. Free Halloween bags and masks will be given out, while supplies last.

For further information, please call the Department of Public Health & Social Services/Bureau of Family Health & Nursing Services, Margarita B. Gay RN, MN or Lynn A. Manibusan RN, NP at 735-7121 or 735-7109.
