The medical cannabis business Permit to Operate is non-transferable and only valid for one year from date of issue.

All applications or annual renewals for Permit to Operate must be submitted to the Department of Public Health and Social Services (DPHSS) 60 days prior to the date of expiration. DPHSS shall notify businesses to renew or reapply within seven (7) days of the 60th day.

Failure to renew the permit will result in the forfeiture of medical cannabis, prepared medical cannabis, and medical cannabis product.

DPHSS shall give the medical cannabis business 24-hour notice of the expiration of the Permit to Operate.

On the date of expiration, DPHSS shall revoke the business' Permit to Operate and DPHSS is authorized to seize all forfeited cannabis. The medical cannabis business may destroy all cannabis prior to the expiration and provide the required documentation of the destruction and disposal of the cannabis pursuant to § 122521 of the P.L. 33-220.

DPHSS may suspend the Permit to Operate of any licensed business that is found to be in violation of P.L. 33-220. The business shall be given 30 calendar days to be in compliance. Failure to comply will result in revocation of a licensed medical cannabis license and forfeit of the cannabis on its premises.
